Just to make it interesting for about ten days we have decided to inaugurate a sale that will enable you to buy new, stylish footwear at prices that will appeal to you as bargains. Here's a chance to invest in High-grade Shoes at little cost, and no one should allow the opportunity to pass without investigating. We start the ball rolling in this fashion:

Remember, these are new goods—late styles—and have just been received. Besides being the shoes you ought to buy, just think of the price you are asked to pay. The goods were placed on sale THIS MORNING, and the sale will continue during the time specified.

Chicago, July 6.—Twenty-one disciples of John Alexandre Dowe visited Exauston, a Chicago suburh, and despite the efforts of the entire police force of the place, a mob of 1,000 people drove them out of town. Several days ago four of Dowle's missionaries were egged and driven out of Evanston, and this second visit of the 21 was intended to convert the terror of their ways. The instant he Dowleites began their meeting they were assailed with eggs, vegetables and other missiles. The guard of policemen was too small to afford much protection, and the crowd soon began to hustle the missionaries along the street in a manner that Knight called the entire police force to the rescue, but it included only 30 men, and was unable to cope with the mob. Several of the male Dowleites were knocked down and both women and men were liberally be-spattered with eggs and mud.
